

Bible Study on Hermeneutics

Grace Bible Chapel

Pastor/Teacher Jim Bryant

Listing of Suggested basic “getting started” study resources:

Software:

Logos Bible Study Software $150 to $1,400 – this is the best software available

E-Sword (the basic is good and free), many free down loads, some downloads require a fee

Word Studies (books):

An Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words – W.E. Vine

Nelson’s Expository Dictionary of Old Testament Words – Unger & White

Also needed – a good basic English dictionary (such as Websters)

Concordance (these not needed if using a Bible Software):

Strong’s Exhaustive Concordance – also has lexicon of words

Zondervan NASB Exhaustive Concordance – also has lexicon of words

General knowledge books:

(Many of these are included with Bible software)

Unger’s Bible Handbook

Unger’s Bible Dictionary

Nelson’s Illustrated Bible Dictionary

Wycliffe Bible Encyclopedia

Talk Thru the Bible – Wilkerson / Boa

Interlinear Greek – English New Testament (with lexicon and synonyms- Zondervan

Nave’s Topical Bible

The Treasury of Scripture Knowledge - Hendrickson

Systematic Theology / General Theology:

Lectures in Systematic Theology – Henry C. Thiessen

Basic Theology – Charles C. Ryrie

The Moody Handbook of Theology – Enns

Major Bible Themes – Chafer / Walvoord

Bakers Dictionary of Theology – Harrison

General Commentaries on books of the Bible:

The Bible Knowledge Commentary (New Testament only) – Walvoord / Zuck

The Wiersbe Bible Commentary (whole Bible) – Warren Viersbe

Any commentaries by John MacArthur

Any commentaries by James Montgomery Boice

Any commentaries by William Hendricksen

Any commentaries by David Martyn-Lloyd Jones

Any commentaries by John Calvin

The Wycliffe Bible Commentary (whole Bible) – Moody

Unger’s Commentary on the Old Testament (OT only) – Unger

Old Testament Commentaries – Kyle and Delitzsch