James 5:13-18

Introduction: _____

James turns attention to the importance of prayer

- Prayer and Suffering

James 5:13 – Is anyone among you suffering? Then he must pray. Is anyone cheerful? He is to sing praises.

- Prayer and Restoration

James 5:14-15 – Is anyone among you sick? Then he must call for the elders of the church and they are to pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord; And the prayer of faith will restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up, and if he has committed sins, they will be forgiven him.

- Prayer and Brethren

James 5:16a – Therefore, confess your sins to one another, and pray for one another so that you may be healed.

- Prayer and Power

James 5:16b-18 – A prayer of a righteous person, when it is brought about, can accomplish much. Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain, and it did not rain on the earth for three years and six months. Then he prayed again, and the sky poured rain and the earth produced its fruit.
