Luke 10:38-42; Serving the Lord Faithfully

duction:
Corinthians 11:3 – But I am afraid that, as the serpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds will be astray from the simplicity and purity of devotion to Christ.
Service Correctly Focused:
Contesting received.
uke 10: 38-40 – Now as they were traveling along, He entered a village; and a woman named Martha elcomed Him into her home. And she had a sister called Mary, who was also seated at the Lord's feet, and as listening to His word. But Martha was distracted with all her preparations; and she came up to Him and id, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to do the serving by myself? Then tell her to help me."

Seeing Priorities:

"If we would be strong for service in the strength that prevents distraction and unrest, we must know what it is to find time amid all the duties of life to sit at His feet as disciples" (G. Campbell Morgan).

Luke 10:41-42 – But the Lord answered and said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and distracted by many things; but only one thing is necessary; for Mary has chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her."

Reflec	tive Questions:
1.	Is Martha's frustration unusual or wrong for those who diligently serve with good intent?
2.	Which do you find most challenging, service or listening and why?
	How can both hospitality and spiritual growth work together?
4.	What can we do to be sure that our acts of service do not conflict with our need to listen to our Lord?
5.	How can we prioritize our need for God's Word when life's demands are overwhelming
6.	What does our Lord's response to Martha reveal about His priorities?
