Various Scriptures – The Godly Woman in the Church

1 Timothy 2:11, 12 – “A woman must quietly receive instruction with entire submissiveness. But I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man, but to remain quiet.”

Titus 2:3–5 – “Older women likewise are to be reverent in their behavior, not malicious gossips nor enslaved to much wine, teaching what is good, so that they may encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, to be sensible, pure, workers at home, kind, being subject to their own husbands, so that the word of God will not be dishonored.”

1 Pet 3:4 – “but let it be the hidden person of the heart, with the imperishable quality of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious in the sight of God.”

I. The Call to Order – God's Design for the Church: (1 Cor 14:33-35; 1 Tim 2:9-15)

- God has ordered His church for His glory and our good, and that order includes distinct roles for men and women: _____

III. The Character of Reverence – Women Reflecting Christ in the Church: (Tit 2:3-5; 1 Tim 2:15; 1 Pet 3:1-6)

- A woman's most powerful testimony in the church is not her position but her Christlike character marked by reverence, humility, and faith: _____

Reflection Questions:

1. Am I joyfully submitting to God's design for women in the church?
2. How am I using my gifts to serve the body within biblical boundaries?
3. Does my life reflect a gentle, reverent spirit that adorns the gospel?
4. Who am I intentionally encouraging or discipling in the church?

Heart Check:

- Do I trust that God's design for my role is not only right—but good?
