I. The Pattern of Prayer: (v.1a-b) _____

Conclusion and Application: _____

Reflection Questions:

1. What does Jesus’ consistent commitment to prayer reveal about what we truly need most in this life?
2. Am I treating prayer as an essential priority or as an occasional addition to my spiritual life?
3. If the sinless Son of God lived in constant dependence on the Father through prayer, how much more must we, as redeemed but needy disciples, learn to pray with that same humility, intentionality, and desire for true communion?

Heart Check:

- Am I willing to humble myself like this disciple, admitting that I don’t know how to pray as I should, and ask the Lord to teach me?

True prayer is not learned by memorizing rote prayers, but by watching Christ, humbling ourselves, and surrendering to a life of dependence upon the Father.
