Security in God's Wisdom
Proverbs 2

v.1, "My son, if you will receive my words and treasure my commandments within you..."
v. 5, "Then you will discern the fear of the LORD And discover the knowledge of God."
v.6, "For the Lord gives wisdom; From His mouth come knowledge and understanding."
v.12, "To deliver you from the way of evil, from the man who speaks perverse things..."
v. 16, "To deliver you from the strange woman, From the adulteress who flatters with her words."
v.20, "So you will walk in the way of good men and keep to the paths of the righteous."

Reflection Questions:

- Am I pursuing God with my whole heart?
- Do I truly trust that God’s wisdom can protect, preserve, and guide me in this world?
- Where am I most vulnerable to deception or desire, and how is God’s Word sharpening my discernment?
- Am I walking in the path set forth by Christ, or am I trying to pave my own way?

Heart Check

- Do I treasure God’s wisdom enough to actively pursue Him, or does my life reveal my treasures lie elsewhere?

Wisdom doesn’t come to the casual or complacent. It comes to those who cry out, seek, and search because the Spirit of God has stirred their hearts to do so. And the One who calls you to walk in wisdom is the same One who gives it, guards the path, and walks it with you.
