Trusting the Lord with All Your Heart

Proverbs 3:1-12

v.1, "My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments;"
v.5, "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding."
v.6, "In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight."
v.7, "Do not be wise in your own eyes; fear the LORD and turn away from evil."
v.11, "My son, do not reject the discipline of the LORD, or loathe His reproof," v.12, "For whom the LORD loves He reproveth, even as a father corrects the son in whom he delights."

Reflection Questions:

- Do I treasure God’s Word in my heart, or simply know it in my head?
- In what areas of my life am I tempted to lean on my understanding, my feelings, or that of others instead of fully trusting God’s Word?
- Am I resisting God’s correction in my life, or receiving it as the loving discipline of my Father?

Heart Check

- Does my life reflect a heart that is yielded to the Lord – treasuring His Word, trusting His wisdom, and welcoming His correction?

“Not till we have become humble and teachable, standing in awe of God’s holiness and sovereignty, acknowledging our own littleness, distrusting our own thoughts and willing to have our minds turned upside down, can divine wisdom become ours.”
