Reflection Questions:

1. In what areas of life are you most tempted to live independently of God, and how can daily prayer help reorient your heart toward humble dependence?
2. Do you tend to bring your needs to God only in times of crisis, or have you cultivated a daily rhythm of trust and petition? What might need to change?
3. How does remembering God as your Father who delights to give what is good change the way you pray for provision, even in the midst of uncertainty?

Heart Check:

- When I think about my daily needs, do I respond with quiet trust in my heavenly Father or with anxiety, self-sufficiency, or grumbling? What does that reveal about where I’m placing my confidence?
